The non-executive Board members are joined at Board meetings by the Group's Managing Director, the Managing Director of Australian Leather Holdings Limited, the Company's Chief Financial Officer and the Group's Company Secretary.

Board Committees

The Board may from time to time establish committees where the Board is of the belief that the establishment of such a committee will improve the performance of the Board in accomplishing its duties.

The Board operates an Audit Committee. The committee shall be members of, and appointed by, the Board of directors and shall comprise at least three non-executive directors. A majority of the members shall be independent of management and the Company. The main functions of the Audit Committee are to oversee the Company's financial reporting process and report the findings of their activities to the Board, assess the accounting financial and internal controls and appoint and liaise with the external audit firm.

The Board also operates a Nominations and Remuneration Committee. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee operates pursuant to a formal charter, a full copy of which can be accessed from SFC's website. The Nominations and Remuneration Committee shall comprise of at least three non-executive directors. A majority of the Committee members are required to be independent of management of the Company.

The Nominations and Remuneration Committee supports and advises the Board to ensure the Board comprises individuals with the requisite skills and experience to competently discharge the Board's duties. In identifying and forming a recommendation, the Committee takes into consideration such factors as it deems appropriate in each case. The primary criteria adopted in selection of suitable Board candidates is their capacity to contribute to the ongoing development of the Company having regard to the nature of the Company's core business interests and to the candidate's attributes in the context of the attributes of existing Board members. These factors may include commercial acumen, skill, judgement, experience and the extent to which the candidate would be a desirable addition to the Board or Board sub-committees.

The Committee also determines the remuneration payable to the Managing Director (and executive directors if any) and the remuneration of the non-executive directors within the aggregate approved by shareholders. The Company has performance-based incentive plans in place at each of its operations in which management and the labour force participate. The incentive plans in operation have been tailored specifically to each of the Group's operations. Benchmarks, applicable hurdle rates and vesting provisions vary between each of the plans.

The Board does not believe the Board or the Company are of sufficient size to warrant the establishment of additional dedicated Board Committees.

1. Within the last three years has not been a principal of a material professional adviser or a material consultant to the Company or another Group member, or an employee materially associated with the service provided.
2. Is not a material supplier or customer of the Company or other Group member, or an officer of or otherwise associated directly or indirectly with a material supplier or customer.

6. Within the last three years has not been employed in an executive capacity by the Company or another Group member, or been appointed or continued as a director after ceasing to hold such employment.
7. Has not served on the Board for a period which could or reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with the director's ability to act in the best interests of the Company.
8. Does not have family ties or cross directorships which may compromise independence.

Mrs Blain, Mr Schwartz and Mr Perrott are the Company's non-executive directors. Mr Schwartz and Mr Perrott are considered by the Board to be independent directors. The Board does not classify Mrs Blain as an independent director.

Conflicts of Interest

A director is required to disclose to all directors any material personal interest they may have, or may reasonably be perceived to have, in a matter which relates to the affairs of the Company. A director is expected to disclose their interest as soon as practicable after the director becomes aware of that interest.

In the event a potential material conflict of interest arises, the director concerned does not receive the relevant Board papers and leaves the Board meeting while the matter is discussed and considered. Directors must keep the Board advised on an ongoing basis of any interests which could cause, or may reasonably be perceived to cause, a conflict with the interests of the Company. The minutes of the meeting should record the decision taken by those directors who do not have an interest in the matter.

Independent Legal Advice

With the consent of the Chairman, individual directors may seek independent professional advice at the Company's expense on any matter connected with the discharge of their responsibilities. The Chairman requires the submission of a cost estimate by a director in order to establish the reasonableness of the projected fee. The Chairman's consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

Directors Remuneration

The maximum aggregate amount of fees that may be paid to the non-executive Directors was last approved at the 2019 Annual General Meeting at $500,000 per annum. Only non-executive directors who held office prior to 2000 are entitled to a retirement benefit equivalent to one year's annual director's fees.
